31 rule, an independent senator shall be considered to be a minority member.

32 6.8 Committee Votes.

33 All votes in committee on public bills shall be a recorded roll call vote. The vote upon all 34 motions or bills not considered a "public bill" shall, upon the request of any member of the

1 committee, be a recorded roll call vote. Otherwise all votes shall be put by yeas and nays.
2 Committee chairs shall submit all bills approved by committee to the floor forthwith, with a record
3 of the committee vote.

4 6.9 Deadline for Consideration.

5 After the Thursday preceding the spring recess week of each session, committees shall 6 consider only those public bills which have been acted upon and transmitted to the senate by the 7 house of representatives; provided, however, that the president of the senate may request a senate
8 committee to immediately consider a senate bill then in committee and said bill shall be considered 9 by the committee.

10 6.10 Discharge from Committee.

11 No bill shall be taken or called from any such committee, or the committee discharged 12 from the consideration thereof, except:

13 Any senator may present a petition, in writing, to discharge a committee from further 14 consideration of a bill which has been in the possession of the committee for thirty (30) legislative 15 days without having been considered, but only one petition on a particular bill may be presented
16 during the course of a session. Prior to presenting the petition, the senator must introduce a
17 resolution of intent to discharge such committee. Such resolution of intent shall contain the bill 18 number and the committee to be discharged. The presiding officer shall cause the resolution of 19 intent to be printed in the journal of the senate. The petition shall be placed in the custody of the 20 secretary of the senate who shall arrange some convenient place for the signatures of the senators 21 to be placed thereon in the presence of the reading clerk during the hours in which the senate is in 22 session. A signature may be withdrawn by a senator at any time before the petition shall become 23 effective.

24 On the first day of each week, there shall be printed in the journal of the senate the petitions 25 pending under these rules, together with the signatures thereto; provided, however, that as soon as 26 a majority of all the senators elected to the senate shall have affixed their signatures to any such 27 petition to discharge a committee under this rule, the presiding officer shall cause notice thereof to 28 be given to chair and clerk of the committee to which such bill was referred, and such notice shall,
29 thereupon, automatically discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill and the bill
30 shall be placed upon the calendar in accordance with section 7.6 hereof.

31 Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to change the deadline for 32 consideration as specified in section 6.9.

33 6.11 Compelling Committee Action.

34 If a committee to which a bill has been referred fails to consider such bill within sixteen

1 (16) legislative days of its referral, the prime sponsor of such bill, or a majority of the appointed 2 members, but not less than four (4) committee members, may, in writing, request the chair of the 3 committee, through the presiding officer of the senate, that such bill be considered. The request
4 shall be printed in the journal of the senate. The committee shall consider such bill at its first
5 meeting held at least three (3) legislative days after such request is made. If the committee does not 6 consider the bill within nine (9) legislative days of receipt of the request then the committee shall 7 be discharged of its responsibility to consider such bill and such bill shall be placed on the senate
8 calendar pursuant to section 7.6 hereof. Consideration by a committee shall be interpreted to mean 9 any one of the following actions: recommendation of passage, recommendation of passage as 10 amended, transfer to another committee, indefinite postponement, hold for further study or defeat
11 of the bill. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to change the deadline for 12 consideration as specified in section 6.9.

13 6.12 Defeat of a Bill.

14 Once a bill is defeated in committee, the same shall not be acted upon or considered again
15 during the same legislative year.

16 6.13 Indefinite Postponement.

17 Whenever any bill is postponed indefinitely in committee, the same shall not be acted upon 18 or considered again during the same legislative year.

19 6.14 Transfer of Bills.

20 In the event the chair of any standing committee determines that any bill then pending 21 before the committee would more properly be pending before another standing committee of the 22 senate, the chair shall transfer such bill to such other standing committee as is deemed appropriate 23 during the reports of committees.

24 6.15 Committee Records.

25 All recorded votes of committees, all written testimony submitted to a committee, and the 26 transcripts of any recorded testimony shall be retained by the clerk of each committee, shall 27 constitute public records, and shall be available for inspection to any senator and to any person
28 upon request. All committee votes, transcripts and testimony shall be transmitted to the secretary 29 of state pursuant to state law and senate policy following final adjournment in even numbered years.

30 6.16 Attribution of Bills.

31 Upon presentation of testimony before a committee, the prime sponsor of the bill shall 32 provide to the committee the name of any individual, group or organization responsible for the 33 substantive basis or text of the bill.

34 6.17 Companion Bills.

1 Any house bill, identical to a senate bill previously heard in committee, may be considered
2 without further hearing.

3 6.18 Substitute Bills.

4 Any proposed substitute bill, or a substitute of a bill held by a committee, shall be posted
5 at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to consideration. Such postings will be placed on the official 6 general assembly website, as well as on the legislative data bulletin board and on a bulletin or 7 electronic board of which shall be for the public's use and shall be situated at the main entrance to 8 the state library. The electronic posting shall be considered the official date of the posting. In the 9 event that the electronic posting is inoperable, then the official posting shall be the legislative data
10 bulletin board. The chair may waive this twenty-four (24) hour posting requirement, for 11 amendments technical, grammatical, or not substantive or substantial in nature. This section shall 12 not apply to the annual state budget bill.

13 SECTION 7.

14 PROCEEDINGS ON THE SENATE FLOOR

15 7.1 Right to the Floor.

16 No senator shall address another except through the presiding officer. A senator shall rise
17 to put a question, may state it or read a paper sitting. When any senator wishes to speak or to deliver 18 any matter to the senate, the senator shall press his or her recognition control and the presiding 19 officer shall recognize the senator who so requests recognition and the order of recognition shall 20 be determined by the presiding officer. The senator so recognized shall not be interrupted while 21 speaking except by a call to order or a motion to suspend section 3.5. The senator shall then 22 immediately be seated unless permitted by the senate to proceed, which shall be determined upon 23 motion without debate. No senator, exclusive of the majority and minority leaders, the prime 24 sponsor or floor manager, or the chair of the committee from which the bill or resolution was 25 reported, shall speak more than twice to the same question without leave of the senate, which shall 26 be determined without debate; nor more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have 27 spoken; nor for longer than five (5) minutes without the leave of the senate, which shall be 28 determined without debate. A senator may yield his or her right to the floor to another senator.

29 7.2 Personal Privilege.

30 Only at the time provided for in section 3.3, a senator may claim the floor to address the 31 senate on personal privilege. Personal privilege shall include the right to reply to criticism, or to 32 discuss anything clearly derogatory to the member or which reflects upon his or her character that 33 appears in the press or other public medium but shall not include the right to discuss favorable 34 references to the senator, nor to reply to generalized criticism of the senate which does not refer to

1 him or to her specifically, nor to attack another member of the senate personally. Whether a 2 member's remarks constitute personal privilege shall be determined by the presiding officer.

3 7.3 Addressing the Senate on Important Matters.

4 Only at the time provided for in section 3.3, a senator may request unanimous consent of 5 the senators present to address the senate on a topic or matter of importance to the welfare of the 6 state. A senator granted the right to so address the senate may be interrupted at any time by another
7 senator who wishes to object to the first senator's right to continue to address the senate and upon 8 such objection the first senator's right to address the senate shall terminate.

9 7.4 Objectionable Language.

10 No senator shall use profane, insulting, or abusive language or act in any manner that is 11 disruptive to the course of public debate on the senate floor, or in testimony before any committee 12 of the general assembly.

13 7.5 Priority of Business.

14 All questions relating to priority of business to be acted upon shall be decided by the 15 presiding officer without debate.

16 7.6 Calendar.

17 There shall be a calendar kept by the secretary of the senate upon which shall be placed the 18 bills reported by all committees, and all other matters ordered placed thereon by the senate. Matters
19 on the calendar shall be arranged by the secretary of the senate in numerical order by committee 20 unless otherwise ordered by the president of the senate in agreement with the majority leader and 21 the minority leader. Such calendar shall be electronically available to all members of the senate.
22 Except as provided in section 7.13, and during consideration of the calendar, no other business shall 23 intervene except to receive a communication from the house or a motion to suspend section 3.5.

24 All business on the calendar not disposed of at the time of adjournment shall be first in 25 order on the calendar the next day. No matter of business on the calendar shall be considered upon 26 its merits unless it has been on such calendar for at least two (2) calendar days; except that the 27 president of the senate may order a bill placed on the calendar for less than two (2) calendar days;
28 provided, however, a bill passed by the senate and amended by the house of representatives may 29 be considered by the senate without being on the calendar for two (2) calendar days if the 30 requirements of section 4.9-1 have been met.

31 7.7 Consent Calendar.

32 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7.6, the secretary of the senate shall also 33 maintain a separate calendar, designated as the consent calendar, upon which shall be placed 34 resolutions required by section 4.7, acts seeking to vacate the forfeiture of a corporate charter and

1 such other bills as directed by the president of the senate. Matters on the consent calendar shall be
2 in order for disposal on each day and shall include all such matters reported or referred thereto from 3 the previous day. Such consent calendar shall be posted in the chamber of the senate. All matters
4 on the consent calendar shall be disposed by roll call vote on a single motion except such matters
5 as may be objected to by any single senator, which said matter or matters shall be held over on the 6 regular calendar for the next legislative day.

7 7.8 Reports of Joint Committees.

8 No bill reported by or forwarded on the recommendation of a joint committee of the two 9 houses shall be in order for concurrence by the senate if it shall appear that the members of such 10 joint committee on the part of the senate, if in attendance on the general assembly, shall not have 11 been notified or present when the subject was acted on by such joint committee. No report shall be 12 acted on in the senate from any joint committee unless as subscribed by a senator who is a member
13 of said committee. Any report from a joint committee shall be made on the floor of the senate by a 14 member of said committee, notwithstanding that said member may not have concurred in the report
15 and said report shall be held on the desk unless ordered placed on the calendar pursuant to section 16 7.6 by the president of the senate or by a majority vote of the senate.

17 7.9 Messages from the House.

18 When a message is received from the house of representatives, transmitting any papers, the 19 secretary of the senate shall transmit to the office of the president of the senate all house transmittals
20 received on that day. The president of the senate shall assign house transmittals to committees upon 21 adjournment of the senate. The secretary of the senate shall cause all house transmittals to be 22 published in the senate journal for the day such transmittals are received. Any senator may object
23 to the committee assignment for any transmittal received during the previous legislative day. Upon 24 objection being made, the presiding officer shall assign the transmittal to the committee requested 25 by the senator making the objection, provided, however, that if another senator objects to any 26 assignment or proposed assignment of the transmittal, then the presiding officer shall call for a vote
27 of the senate on any motion for assignment which has been made and seconded, such motion 28 requiring a majority vote of those senators present and voting for assignment to a particular 29 committee.

30 During the time for consideration of house transmittals, a senator may move for immediate 31 consideration of a house transmittal, received by the secretary of the senate on the previous 32 legislative day. If there is no objection to the motion, it is deemed to be approved, but if there is 33 objection to the motion for immediate consideration, the presiding officer shall submit the motion
34 to a vote of the senate, such motion for immediate consideration shall require the votes of two-

1 thirds (2/3) of those senators present and voting, for approval.

2 7.10 Amendments.

3 No senator may amend from the floor any bill pending before the senate unless such 4 amendment be submitted, electronically or in writing, with sufficient copies signed by the 5 proponent, and read to the body; provided, however, that no amendment to the annual budget bill 6 making appropriations for the support of the state may be offered, except with the agreement of 7 two-thirds (2/3) of the members present, unless copies thereof shall have been filed with the 8 secretary of the senate no later than 12:00 o'clock noon on the legislative day preceding the 9 legislative day on which the budget bill shall be in order for consideration: provided however that 10 with majority consent a senator may make an oral amendment of a technical or minor nature.

11 7.11 Votes in Concurrence.

12 Whenever any bill shall come before the senate for concurrence, and the senate concurs
13 without amendments, or fails to concur, the secretary of the senate may announce the concurrence 14 or nonconcurrence to the other house, but the original bill received by the senate shall not be 15 transmitted to the other house.

16 7.12 Motions.

17 No motion shall be debated until it has been seconded. For the purpose of recorded votes
18 only the first second shall be recorded. A motion may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before 19 a decision or a motion to amend, except a motion to reconsider, which shall not be withdrawn after 20 the time has elapsed within which it could be originally made.

21 7.13 Interruption of Debate.

22 When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except to suspend section
23 3.5, to adjourn, to recommit, for the previous question, to close debate, to fix a time for closing
24 debate, to take a recess, to lay on the table, to take from the table, to transmit, to postpone 25 indefinitely, to change calendar arrangement, or to amend, and any motion or resolution the purpose
26 of which is to take any bill or any other matter from committees of the senate or to discharge a 27 committee from the consideration thereof, which several motions shall have precedence in the order
28 in which they are here arranged and shall be decided by majority vote without debate; provided
29 further that a motion to recommit as to any bill which is placed on the senate calendar may be voted 30 by yeas and nays; however, if the prime sponsor timely objects, the motion shall be voted on by 31 electronic roll of the senate.

32 7.14 Adjournment.

33 When time for meeting of the senate shall have been previously fixed, a motion to adjourn
34 and a motion to suspend section 3.5 shall always be in order. The senate shall not be adjourned

1 except by affirmative vote of a majority of the senators present and voting.

2 7.15 Lay on the Table.

3 When an amendment proposed to any pending measure be laid on the table, it shall not 4 carry with it, or prejudice such measure.

5 7.16 Dividing Questions.

6 A question that is susceptible of division shall, at the request of the majority, be divided
7 and put separately upon the propositions of which it is compounded.

8 7.17 Non-Germane Amendments.

9 No motion or proposition of a subject different from that under consideration shall be 10 admitted under color of amendment.

11 7.18 Motion for Reconsideration.

12 A senator on the prevailing side of any vote may, on the same legislative day, move to 13 reconsider the vote on the same or following legislative day. When a bill has been reconsidered it
14 shall not be reconsidered again during the session. Bills and other papers in reference to which a 15 motion to reconsider is pending shall, unless otherwise ordered, remain in the possession of the 16 secretary of the senate until the right of reconsideration has expired. The privilege to reconsider 17 granted by this rule may be suspended by a majority vote of the senators present and voting.

18 7.19 Printed Material.

19 If the reading of any printed or written paper be objected to, the matter shall be determined 20 by a majority vote of the senate without debate.

21 7.20 Recommittal.

22 No motion to recommit shall be entertained by the presiding officer as to any bill which is 23 placed on the calendar as the result of section 6.10 until every senator desiring to be heard has been 24 recognized, notwithstanding the provisions of section 7.13.

25 7.21 Immediate Consideration.

26 During the time for introduction and reference of new business, as provided in section 3.3,
27 a senator may introduce a bill and move for immediate consideration of the bill at that time. If there 28 is no objection to the motion, for immediate consideration it is deemed to be approved, but if there
29 is objection to the motion for immediate consideration, the presiding officer shall submit the motion
30 to a vote of the senate; such motion for immediate consideration shall require the votes of two-
31 thirds (2/3) of those senators present and voting, for approval. If the bill is not available
32 electronically to all members of the senate at the time of the request for immediate consideration, 33 then a hard copy of the bill shall be made available to any senator upon request.

34 7.22 Questions During Debate.

1 A senator, while speaking after recognition by the chair, may, upon request of a senator,
2 yield to him or her temporarily without thereby relinquishing his or her prior right to the floor and,
3 thereafter, may terminate such interruption and resume speaking at any time; provided, however,
4 that it shall not be in order for a senator to rise and request that a senator, other than the one with 5 the right to the floor, yield to a question. Furthermore, it shall not be in order for a senator, with the 6 right to the floor, to ask another senator to yield to a question, unless such senator has previously
7 spoken during the debate on the matter. All questions and responses shall be directed through the 8 chair and the presiding officer shall not be interrupted when speaking.

9 SECTION 8.

10 VOTING ON THE SENATE FLOOR

11 8.1 Method of Voting.

12 The electronic roll call of the senate shall be called on any vote pertaining to an election,
13 public bill, on passage of the consent calendar and on any other vote at the request of any senator
14 present; otherwise, votes shall be put by yeas and nays. In naming sums or numbers, and fixing 15 times, the largest sum or longest time shall be put first.

16 8.2 Voting Machine Inoperative.

17 In the event the machine is not to be used to record a vote or is not operating properly, all 18 votes and other determinations may be taken as required by senate rules, either by voice vote,
19 division vote or by calling the roll alphabetically and recording the yeas and nays. If a senator's
20 voting device is out of order, the senator shall rise and announce it to the presiding officer and cast 21 his or her vote orally prior to the declaration of the result of the vote.

22 8.3 Who May Vote.

23 Any member who is present on the senate floor must vote. Any senator who is not on the 24 floor at such time, but who returns before the machine is locked, shall be permitted to vote. Without 25 objection or with a majority vote, a senator may be permitted to cast a vote after the results have 26 been announced, provided however such request shall be made on the same legislative day and,
27 only if the vote if so permitted, will not change the result previously announced.

28 8.4 Control of Electronic Voting System.

29 The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the presiding officer and shall 30 be operated by such personnel as the president of the senate so designates.

31 8.5 Conducting a Vote.

32 At a reasonable time prior to any vote being taken, the presiding officer shall announce that 33 a vote is about to be taken. When any senator other than the president of the senate is presiding,
34 such senator may direct either the Secretary of the Senate or the reading clerk to cast his or her vote

1 at his or her voting station, but at no other time may a senator designate any other person to cast
2 his or her vote. Until the completion of the voting, no senator shall be recognized, and no other
3 business shall be transacted. When sufficient time has elapsed for each senator to vote prior to 4 locking the machine, the presiding officer shall ask if any member present desires to vote or change
5 his or her vote. The presiding officer shall then order the machine locked and activate the recording
6 process. The voting machine shall remain locked between all votes.

7 8.6 Announcing the Tally.

8 When the vote is completely recorded, the Secretary of the Senate shall advise the presiding
9 officer of the result; and the presiding officer shall announce the result to the senate and the result
10 shall be recorded in the journal.

11 8.7 Changing a Vote.

12 No vote may be changed after the system has been locked and the vote recorded except 13 that, after a vote has been recorded, any senator may, by a majority vote of the senate, be permitted 14 to change his or her vote, provided that such change be effected on the same calendar day as his or 15 her original vote.

16 8.8 Recording Votes.

17 8.8-1 On any recorded vote, no senator shall be recorded as having voted unless he or she 18 has been recorded or recognized as being present prior to the conduct of said vote.

19 8.8-2 Upon request, on any non-recorded vote, any senator shall have his or her vote
20 recorded so that it shall appear in the journal of the senate.

21 8.9 Voting for Another.

22 No senator may vote for another senator; nor may any person cast a vote for a senator,
23 except as otherwise provided in section 8.5. A senator who voted for another senator may be 24 punished in a manner the senate determines. A person voting for a senator, when not authorized by 25 section 8.5, is barred from the floor of the senate and may be further punished as the senate 26 determines.

27 8.10 Explanation of Vote.

28 No explanation of any vote will be permitted during the voting or after a vote has been cast.

29 8.11 Statement of the Question.

30 After the question has been put, but before the system is locked, any senator may call for a
31 statement of the question.

32 8.12 No Interruption.

33 While the presiding officer is putting the question, or the vote is being recorded, no senator 34 shall speak or leave his or her place.

1 parliamentary and one head page and as many assistant pages, doorkeepers and legislative aides
2 as the president of the senate shall deem necessary; and any or all of them may be removed at the 3 pleasure of the president of the senate.

4 10.2 Absence of a Quorum.

5 When there shall be seven (7) or more senators, but less than a quorum of the senate
6 present, a majority of the senators present may direct the presiding officer to compel the attendance
7 of absent senators in accordance with law.

8 10.3 Amendment and Suspension of Rules.

9 No rule shall be repealed, suspended or amended, or the operation thereof temporarily
10 suspended except by two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting.

11 10.4 Access to the Senate Chamber.

12 10.4-1 Access During Senate Session.

13 Ten minutes prior to the time the senate is scheduled to convene, the secretary of the senate
14 shall clear the senate chamber of all persons other than members of the general assembly, general
15 assembly staff, guests of a senator, and authorized representatives of the news media. From this 16 time to the adjournment or recess of said session no persons other than those listed above shall be 17 admitted to the senate chamber except with permission from the senate president.

18 10.4-2 Senators' Seats.

19 The seat of each senator shall be assigned by the president of the senate, and in no event
20 shall any other person be permitted to occupy such assigned seat.

21 10.4-3 Sheriff's Duties.

22 It shall be the duty of the sheriff, or the sheriff's deputies in attendance in the senate, or in 23 their absence, a member of the capitol police department, to see that sections 10.4-1, 10.4-2, 10.4-24 3, 10.4-4 and 10.4-9 are enforced, and that all senate entrances and exits are kept completely clear
25 and open to passage to and from the chamber.

26 10.4-4 Gallery.

27 When the normal seating accommodations for visitors in the gallery have been filled, no 28 additional seats shall be installed, and no persons shall be thereafter admitted to the gallery of the 29 senate while in session except to fill vacancies.

30 10.5 Confidentiality of Drafting.

31 At the request of any senator or senate attorney to the director of the legislative council, an 32 entry into the word processing system may be made confidential so that the entry shall be accessible
33 only to the senator or senate attorney making such request or his or her designee. An entry may be 34 a bill, letter, memorandum or any other document.

1 10.6 Misuse of Rules.

2 If it appears that the rules are being used as a tactic to impede senate business, the presiding
3 officer may make a decision to that effect and put the matter before the senate and a majority vote
4 of the senators present shall sustain with finality the ruling of the presiding officer.

5 10.7 Extraordinary and Special Session.

6 In the event of the calling of an extraordinary session of the general assembly by the 7 governor, or a reconvened session by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate, said
8 session shall be conducted pursuant to these rules; provided, however, that sections 4.9-1, 6.2, 7.6
9 and 7.8 are not applicable to any such session; and, provided further, that any bill, act or resolution
10 for consideration of which the session is called shall have been provided to the members at least 11 twenty-four (24) hours prior to the consideration of the senate.

12 ~~10.7.1~~ 10.7-2 Voting by Proxy During Declared State of Emergency.

13 Notwithstanding any senate rule to the contrary, during any declared state of emergency
14 and while the senate is in session, a senator may request from the presiding officer permission to 15 vote by proxy on any bill or matter before the senate. The presiding officer shall, when deciding to 16 grant or deny the request, consider whether the senator making the request would face a hardship 17 in attending session, or, during a contagion, falls within a high-risk category as defined by the 18 Rhode Island Department of Health or an equivalent agency. If the presiding officer grants a senator 19 permission to vote by proxy, the presiding officer shall notify the secretary of the senate of the 20 decision to allow such vote by proxy. The secretary of the senate shall prepare a proxy(ies) for each
21 senator voting by proxy, in a form substantially as follows: The bill number or matter to be voted 22 on followed by a box to approve and a box to disapprove. The secretary of the senate shall deliver
23 the proxy(ies), by email or hand delivery, to each senator authorized to vote by proxy. Any senator 24 voting by proxy shall have their signature notarized and shall return the notarized proxy(ies), by 25 email or hand delivery, to the leader of their respective caucus. The majority or minority leader
26 shall forward the executed proxy(ies) to the secretary of the senate to be recorded in the journal.
27 The right to vote by proxy shall cease on the date that the state of emergency is officially declared 28 over.

29 10.7-2 Remote committee hearings.

30 Notwithstanding any senate rule to the contrary, during any declared state of emergency
31 and while the senate is in session, a committee chairperson, with the permission of the presiding 32 officer, may schedule a remote meeting of the committee in which they serve as chairperson for 33 the purpose of hearing and/or considering any matter that has been assigned to the committee.
34 Unless otherwise provided for, the chairperson or vice chairperson of the committee shall ensure

1 that all requirements of section 6 of these rules are complied with. This rule shall be construed to
2 allow for both remote and in person/remote participation.

3 10.8 Mason's Rules.

4 Mason's Rules of Order shall govern procedure on the senate floor and in the committees
5 of the senate in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with these rules or with any joint rules
6 of the senate and house.

7 10.9 Use of Facilities.

8 The senate locker room, lounge and corridor adjacent to them shall be for the exclusive use
9 of the senators and their guests.

10 10.10 Decorum.

11 No senator shall use profane, insulting or abusive language or act in any manner that 12 interferes with the orderly conduct of the session of the senate. The president of the senate shall
13 preserve decorum and order in the senate chamber. While in the senate chamber, members and staff
14 shall be required to dress in proper and appropriate attire, such as blouses, dress slacks and collared
15 shirts with accompanying jacket.

16 10.11 Smoking Prohibited.

17 Smoking shall be prohibited in all senate areas including, but not limited to: the chamber, 19 enforce this rule.

20 10.12 Consumption of Food and Alcoholic Beverages.

21 The consumption of food and alcoholic beverages shall be prohibited on the senate floor.
22 Except at the specific request of a member, all beverages consumed on the floor shall be in paper
