

To Chairman Hull & members of the committee,

Why there is a bill put in to prohibit a town from even assessing the costs of road repaving after sewer project work is completed just reeks of bewildering logic. Rhode Island roadways are already negatively known as some of the worst in the country. Why would we allow a town to skimp out on even looking at estimates for repairs is absurd.

Thank You,

Jordan Goyette