Explanation by State Budget Office:

The bill sets forth a new RIGL section 37-2-17.3, entitled "Purchase of Motor Vehicles by Volunteer Firefighters", allowing volunteer firefighters in the state to utilize the State purchasing provisions and procedures outlined in Chapter 37-2 of the RIGL.

Comments on Sources of Funds:

The bill does not impact state funds. See summary of fiscal impact below.

Summary of Facts and Assumptions:

The intent of the bill is to allow volunteer firefighters to purchase any motor vehicle, for personal or vocational use, under the State purchasing provisions and procedures outlined in RIGL Chapter 37-2.

Summary of Fiscal Impact:

RIGL 37-2-4, entitled "Applicability", limits the provisions of Chapter 37-2 to expenditures of public funds by a state governmental entity.

The State purchasing provisions and procedures are limited to expenditures of public funds by a state governmental entity and thus can not be used by individuals for personal purchases. Thus, no fiscal impact is reported.
