Commission for Human Rights

- Established in 1949 by Chapter 28-5 of the RIGL
  - Responsible for enforcement of the state’s anti-discrimination laws relating to:
    - Employment
    - Public Accommodations
    - Housing
    - Credit
    - Delivery of Services
Caseload Process

- Receives complaints by telephone or walk-in
- Intake questionnaire is filled out
- Formal charge of discrimination is prepared
- Staff conducts investigation and completes Investigative Summary if case is not settled
- If probable cause is found:
  - Administrative hearing held before the Commission or
  - Civil action before the Superior Court or Federal District Court at the discretion of either party
Caseload Process

Housing Cases

- If either party elects for the matter to be heard in Court, the Commission must commence and maintain action (in court) if no action is filed by complainant or the attorney general.

- If no election is made after probable cause is found, a Commission attorney must maintain administrative action seeking relief for aggrieved party.
