Hello, I am an Electrical Apprentice in the state of Rhode Island. I have read bill H-7015 and believe that it should be passed in its current form. Electrical work is how I make a living and if taken away from me and others who rely on electrical work, it makes it hard for us to support our families. A home inspector who knows nothing or only knows the basics of electricity, could put themselves in a dangerous situation if they were to do electrical inspections themselves.
