Subject: H 7781 - Strongly Agree - Parental rights

Only parents should be/must be given the rights to guide children – be it religion or education. Unless their rights are taken away by a court action due to neglect or abuse, the state MUST keep all government agencies from espousing agenda not approved or desired by parents.

School emphasis needs to be on the basics: English, History, Math and Science. Children need to be taught how are Government works but not be indoctrinated as to the frantic ideas or trends of the few
