

Organizations Working to pass the 2025 RI VICTIM ACT

The Victims of Crime Trauma Informed Mobilization Act (S258, H5390) would establish a $30 million VICTIM Fund grant program to administer funds to qualified nonprofits. The following 25 victim service organizations support the bill, as well as the RI General Treasurer's Office and the RI Police Chiefs Association.

Darlene Allen, CEO/Executive Director
Adoption Rhode Island

Lisa Guillette, Executive Director
Foster Forward

Eileen Hayes, CEO/President
Amos House

Laura Jaworski, Executive Director
House of Hope CDC

Toni Marie Roderick, Executive Director
Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center

Jake Bissaillon, CEO
Justice Assistance

Channavy Chhay, Executive Director
Center for Southeast Asians

Barbara Haynes, Executive Director
McAuley Ministries

Marty Sinnott, CEO
Child & Family

Lisa Pina-Warren, Executive Director
Nonviolence Institute

Benedict F. Lessing, Jr., President/CEO
Community Care Alliance

Mario Bueno, Executive Director
Progreso Latino, Inc.

Chris Mansfield, President/CEO
Comprehensive Community Action

Melissa Sanzaro, Executive Director
Providence Housing Authority

Michelle Loranger, Executive Director
Day One

Lucy Rios, Executive Director
RI Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Kathleen Cloutier, Executive Director
Dorcas International

Vanessa Volz, President/CEO
Sojourner House

Rilwan Feyisitan, Jr., President / CEO
East Bay Community Action Program

Beth Bixsby, CEO
Tides Family Services

Judith Earle, Executive Director
Elizabeth Buffum Chace Center

Joseph DeSantis, President/CEO
TriCounty Community Action

Margaret Holland McDuff, CEO
Family Service of Rhode Island

Jessica Walsh, Executive Director
Women's Resource

Rush Frazier, Executive Director
Youth Pride Inc.