Dear Chairman Abney and Members of the House Finance Committee

I am opposed to H5473 and any effort to increase taxes. Although there is press indicating that Massachusetts is benefiting from passing its millionaire tax, I can personally attest that I have had discussions with Massachusetts residents affected that are actively looking to relocate. They have the means and can relocate easily.

Rhode Island should capitalize on this as an opportunity to attract those individuals with a lower level of taxes compared to neighboring states.

Sincerely,

James Kinney
