

Please do not cripple an industry that has helped Rhode Island become one of the best places to do boating and own a boat, It is surplus money that lets people do boating! The middle class is almost totally gone from boating, this will make it impossible for people who can barely afford doing it

Sent from my iPhone

Eric Hansson