

I am strongly opposed to taxing boats in RI.

Here's a unique idea: instead of looking for new ways for the state to spend my money, forcing me to get by with less, how about the state be more fiscally responsible with what you are already taking?

Rich Booth