

Please support this Bill and move out of committee.

Our urban farms now provide fresh, low/no-cost food, nutrition education, exercise and outdoor recreation, job training, and a wealth of social activities to their communities. In other words, they provide many public health benefits in addition to being small businesses.

The tax benefits provided by this bill will provide an important boost to the financial sustainability of our small and urban farms at a time when federal support is no longer available.

Elisabeth McCarthy
8Halidon Ter
Newport, RI