

eliminating or restricting transportation for non-public school students is unacceptable. I pay a lot of taxes and get nothing for it! Don't cut vital services that will harm private schools. Public schools cannot absorb all these students. Private schools provide vital community service educating students at a higher level and with discipline that public schools fail at.
Dr Derek Hathaway