Chair, House Committee on Finance
Rhode Island State House
Providence, RI 02903

RE: Letter Regarding House Bill 7467 – An Act Relating to State Affairs and Government – Tourism and Development

Dear Chair Abney:

I am writing on behalf of the Rhode Island Department of Revenue, Division of Taxation (“Division”), to: i) express concerns regarding issues with proposed House Bill 7467 as currently drafted; ii) explain the background and current statutory context in order to clarify the intended and unintended consequences of this bill; and iii) make recommendations and request your support in implementing those recommendations.

This letter is not intended as a position in support of or opposition to the bill, but only as recommendations on drafting to provide clarity in the bill and to aid tax administration and compliance.

As you know, this bill would amend several provisions of R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-63.1-3 (“Distribution of tax”) to remove the five percent (5%) of the hotel tax distributed to the Greater Providence-Warwick Convention and Visitors Bureau and reallocating it to the Rhode Island commerce corporation (in addition to the tax distributions it already receives). The bill is set to take effect upon passage.

There are several potential issues with the bill that impact tax administration, including, but not limited to:

- As currently drafted, the bill is unclear as to whether the historical hotel tax distributions are maintained and it may result in the unintended consequence that a greater than one hundred percent (100%) distribution is made to the Rhode Island Commerce corporation.
- Proposed § 42-63.1-3(g)(6) provides for a 5% distribution from hotel taxes generated in the “Aquidneck Island district, statewide district, Block Island district and South County district,” which may not be inclusive of all regional tourism districts as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-63.1-5 and may have been a drafting error.

The Division takes no position with respect to the remainder of the proposed legislation. Rather, the Division is concerned solely with the issues of clarity, tax compliance, and tax administration. As such, the Division respectfully suggests that the bill be redrafted for clarity.

I look forward to working with you to address the issues raised in this letter and appreciate your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Neena S. Savage
Tax Administrator
