

1. Now that you've written the testimony, it is now time to submit your testimony. The steps to do so are below:
 - a. Go to the Rhode Island General Assembly Website
 - b. Go to committee calendars and find the agenda for the bill you want to submit testimony for. If you're not sure which committee or agenda your bill is being heard at, you can also do this by going to the homepage of the website, clicking Bills & Laws, then clicking Bill Status/History, typing in your bill number to "Bill", then selecting the hyperlink on "Scheduled for hearing and/or consideration". This is the agenda for the hearing that day.
 - c. Make sure to see your bill is still being heard and hasn't been postponed
 - d. At the bottom of the agenda is the email to which you will submit your testimony by email. The deadline to do this is an hour before the scheduled hearing.
 - e. Title your email to the legislature with "Testimony in support of [Insert Bill Number], [Insert your full name or organization]".
 - f. Attach your testimony to the email, send it, and you're done! All written testimony is considered public and will be posted to the General Assembly Website under your committee's documents at the date of the hearing.

*make sure to register yourself for updates on the bill! You will get notifications on the status of the SABE Act (H7389, S2555)
