

My name is Sara Lustig from Exeter RI and I am in support of House Bill H5859.

By implementing appropriate signage and limiting the use of well water to non-consumptive purposes, businesses can maintain efficient operations while adhering to health and safety regulations. Many rural businesses and establishments depend on private wells, and imposing stringent requirements that do not directly impact public health is both inefficient and detrimental to small business viability.