To Chairman Craven & members of the Judiciary committee,

I hope you will grant swift passage to this great pro-transparency bill from Rep. Ajello. The outcomes of internal affairs investigations, especially of law enforcement, are more than deserving of public scrutiny. At a time of a greatly unsettled relationship among entire segments of communities and their law enforcement agencies, bills like these go to the heart of repairing that willfully grown sense of mistrust. The population rightfully has grown tired of secretive proceedings that use public dollars to keep misconduct from public view. It is incumbent upon you to open up the doors and shine light on these investigations if we are to actually even begin repairing relationships between law enforcement and populations wary of them.

Thank You,
