Good Morning,

Please move this bill forward for a full house vote. It is jaw-dropping that in this day and age when mass shootings are an everyday occurrence, school children have to listen to gunfire while being educated. When a visitor to the school drops to the ground to begin active shooting protocol (and the children laugh because they've become numb to the gunfire), it is a massive red flag that needs attention now.

I love my children. You love your children. We trust our schools to keep them safe. Why are you allowing this gunfire to continue? Will the lobbyists that support your re-election assuage your collective guilt when another Sandy Hook occurs in RI? It would not assuage mine.

Cheers!
