Hi,

I am opposed to this law being put into place. I learned as a young scout to shoot the Ruger 10/22 for my rifle marksmanship merit badge. It's one of the places I learned extreme responsibility and patience. I have also participated in multiple shooting competitions and events where I have met many fellow Rhode Islanders that I would not have met otherwise. The ban on certain firearms for "looking" dangerous is an irresponsible step in the legislature and sets a bad precedence. Doing these half checks of firearms only supports those who do not follow the law already.

Sincerely,

Sean O'Halloran
