R.I. Freedom Collective,

Hey, my name is Ezekial Johnson JR and I have been incarcerated in Max for 7 years. Most people don't have funds to purchase food and personal hygiene on commissary. So the phone; most people can't afford to call their loved ones. The economy is terrible and loved ones don't have college degrees their living pay check to pay check. When we ^{use} that phone for 20 minutes we get to leave this place mentally and you wouldn't understand how much that helps. Sometimes its just hearing the voice of your loved one that gives you that strength that gets you through the day. ~~Communiti~~ Communications, is the key to any relationship and most can't afford to communicate. Other states such as Mass, CT, and NH "New England" phone calls are free. I think its time that R.I. jump on board. Its needed; mental health is vital.

Thank You
Ezekial Johnson JR
