HERE IS MY PERSONAL STORY of what ~~for~~
PHONE CALLS WILL benefit MEN & WOMEN WHO ARE INCARCERATED.

Your financial status should not dictate the communication you are able to have with your loved ones. The people that suffer the most are from low income families that struggle to make ends meet. Specially now with the way the economy is, it is extremely hard to get by in here on state pay without any outside financial support. Communication with our loved ones should not be considered a priviledge instead it is a need for our sanity and mental health. The relief of not having to worry about paying for communication is essential to our mental health. It brings a sense of joy, hope and motivation to keep going. Thank you for everything you guys are doing. It is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Michael Patino
