Re: House Bill 7761 – An Act Relating To Parks And Recreational Areas -- Public Use Of Private Lands-Liability Limitations

Dear Chairperson McEntee,

Thank you for providing the Department of Administration (“Department”) with the opportunity to submit comments in response to House Bill No. 7761, which would change the definition of owner to exclude the State of Rhode Island (“State”) and municipalities for the purposes of liability limitations relating to public use of private lands.

Removing “state and municipalities” from the definition of “owner” in R.I. General Law § 32-6-2, would mean that the State and municipalities would no longer be entitled to the same protections and limitations on liability as other landowners. These limitations for property owners are provided in R.I. General Law § 32-6-3.

Respectfully, the Department believes that removing these limitations and exposing the State and municipalities to additional liability is not in the State’s best interest.

Sincerely,

Director, Department of Administration
