I am writing in avid support of House Bill 7436, with the hope that Rhode Island can join other states in protecting its citizens from unjust incarceration utilizing state resources. The financial benefit to companies working with the Wyatt Detention Center is a gross and dehumanizing reason to allow our neighbors to be not only locked up, but subjected to the abuse and neglect that is harming their health and ability to communicate with the outside world. On the other hand, shutting the Wyatt Detention Center down would be cost efficient for the city of Central Falls and benefit every community whose members have been taken away from them. We cannot allow the detrimental treatment of immigrants, which has been alarmingly increasing, to continue.
