I'm writing to urge your support House Bill 7134.

The majority of people incarcerated have not had an easy life prior to imprisonment. Many have severe trauma histories and lives of instability and hardship. They have committed a crime and have served time for doing so.

Our job should not end at the time of release. It is equally as important to help individuals integrate back into society in a different manner than when they entered. Obstacles to success abound and yet successful reentry needs to be the goal. This law assists with that and will certainly decrease recidivism. Thank you for considering supporting this important bill.
