

Rhode Island Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

Weybosset Hill Station, P.O. Box 23101
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

April 2, 2026

Rep. Carol Hagan McEntee, Chair
House Judiciary Committee
The Statehouse
Providence, RI 02903

Re: House Bill #2026 – H 7555
Hearing Date – Thursday, April 2, 2026

Dear Chairperson Hagan-McEntee and Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

RIACDL is proud to lend its enthusiastic support to the legislation under consideration here which permits the automatic sealing of individual counts of a criminal complaint dismissed by the prosecution pursuant to District Court Rule of Criminal Procedure 48(a).

Rule 48(a) allows the prosecution to dismiss misdemeanor charges brought in the District Court for a variety of reasons including actual innocence, insufficient evidence to satisfy its responsibility to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, or any other reason that comes under the broad heading of “the exercise of prosecutorial discretion”.

It cannot be overstated that a criminal record is one of the greatest barriers to economic, housing, and educational opportunities. This legislation would allow for automatic sealing of individual counts that are dismissed by the prosecution thereby obviating the need to go to court and obtain legal counsel to achieve this just result.

The legislation makes technical changes to a law that was enacted in 2022 at the behest of The Judiciary working in conjunction with the Public Defender and other criminal justice stakeholders.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Kara Hoopis Manosh,
RIACDL President

Camille A. McKenna,
RIACDL President-Elect

President: Kara Hoopis Manosh | President Elect: Camille McKenna | Director of Finance: Angela M. Yingling | Director of Communications: Rebecca Aitchison | Director of Membership: Kelsey McDonald | Executive Committee: Leah Boisclair, Kimberly Chiulli, Daniel Ciora, Maria Deaton, Michael A. DiLauro, Michael Ewart, Collin Geiselman, Andrew Horwitz, Megan Jackson, John MacDonald, Jason Ollmann, Sarah Potter

RIACDL is an affiliate organization of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL). RIACDL was founded in 1988 by the late Richard M. Casparian, former Public Defender for the State of Rhode Island from 1988 until his death in 1997. RIACDL's mission includes, "working toward achieving justice and dignity... for persons accused of crime and the criminal justice system, and to influence the criminal law for the betterment of the criminal justice system..." RIACDL is registered with the Rhode Island Secretary of State's Office as a nonprofit organization.