Dear Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

I urge you to oppose House Bill H7647, which would allow sealed juvenile records to be disclosed to the NICS background check system for firearm purchase decisions.

Rhode Island's juvenile record sealing laws exist because the legislature recognized that young people deserve a second chance. H7647 creates a special carve-out that applies only to gun purchases: a Rhode Islander's sealed juvenile record would remain sealed for jobs, housing, and education, but not when they try to exercise their Second Amendment rights.

I urge you to vote against H7647.

Respectfully,

Respectfully,

Rhode Island's juvenile record sealing laws exist because the legislature recognized that young people deserve a second chance. H7647 creates a special carve-out that applies only to gun purchases: a Rhode Islander's sealed juvenile record would remain sealed for jobs, housing, and education, but not when they try to exercise their Second Amendment rights.

I urge you to vote against H7647.

Dear Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

I urge you to oppose House Bill H7647, which would allow sealed juvenile records to be disclosed to the NICS background check system for firearm purchase decisions.
