Dear Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

I am writing to urge you to oppose House Bill H8071, which would require a background check for every ammunition purchase in Rhode Island, including reloading components such as primers, powder, and bullets.

This bill treats law-abiding gun owners as suspects every time they buy ammunition. It creates a costly, time-consuming bureaucratic hurdle for routine purchases with no evidence it will reduce crime. Criminals who are already prohibited from possessing firearms will simply acquire ammunition through other means.

I urge you to vote against HH8071.

Respectfully,

Respectfully,

John Bushee

It's not the bullets or supplies that are the threat, it's the user. Again, another way to drive businesses out of RI.

There are far more crucial issues for the legislature to take up their time with that affect many more constituents.

I will follow these bills before the committee along with your voting record and consider these factors for your re-election, fund raising and possible promotions.

I urge you to vote against HH8071.
