Dear Members of the Judiciary Committee,

I strongly urge you to oppose House Bill H8073 and defend the rights of law-abiding Rhode Islanders.

This legislation would force Rhode Islanders to surrender justly acquired private property under threat of criminal penalties. That is an unacceptable infringement on fundamental rights.

Reject H8073.

We have enough gun laws on the books, ones that did nothing to stop mad men from entering our state and committing horrible crimes.

Respectfully,

Michael Day

This legislation would force Rhode Islanders to surrender justly acquired private property under threat of criminal penalties. That is an unacceptable infringement on fundamental rights.

It is important to emphasize that the United States Constitution does not grant rights to the people; rather, it protects the inherent and God-given rights that individuals already possess. The Bill of Rights was deliberately written as a series of limitations on government authority, not as a catalogue of privileges handed down by the state. As the Ninth Amendment affirms, the rights of the people exist independently of the Constitution, and the government's proper role is to safeguard those liberties — not diminish them.

Dear Members of the Judiciary Committee,

I strongly urge you to oppose House Bill H8073 and defend the rights of law-abiding Rhode Islanders.

This legislation would force Rhode Islanders to surrender justly acquired private property under threat of criminal penalties. That is an unacceptable infringement on fundamental rights.

Reject H8073.

Respectfully,

Marshall Grant
