My daughter in law was brutally attacked at knife point with the intent to murder. The assailant was given 20 to serve and was up for parole at eight years. Considering the offense, the man should have given more of a sentence without parole or probation.

Alyssa Garcia was only 18 when this occurred and it changed her life. I've lived in Rhode Island my entire life and have noticed crime increasing and would like to see more punishment for the crime of attempted murder.

Thank you,
Rhonda McNamara
