To Whom It May Concern.:

I write in support of House bill 1760. The right to control your own life and death is to my mind, a basic human right.

I have watched friends and family die long slow painful declines before finally death has taken them. The process robbed them of their dignity, their independence and the freedom to choose.

I sincerely hope that this bill will be written into law in Rhode Island so that others, myself included, will be given the right to avoid the pain of watching the end of our lives approach helplessly.

Thank you,
Sincerely,
Roberta Richman
