Subject: YES on H6637

To the members of the House Judiciary Committee:

My name is Marianne and I am writing to you today in support of House Bill H6637. This bill makes clear what should always be the legal standard: those being detained or in police custody should never be subject to sexual assault or rape from “peace officers.” Individuals who are detained or under arrest are incapable of consenting to sexual acts with officers who hold enormous power over them. Additionally, the bill should be expanded to protect people under investigation by law enforcement, not just those who are detained or in police custody.

You have the power to stop systemic abuse - Please vote YES on H6637.

Sincerely,
Marianne Verrone
