

I strongly support House Bill H7382. With this bill reducing the current limits placed on student housing it will provide students with academic rentals that are very badly needed. This has been done for decades and will allow students to find accessible housing at appropriate rates.

Kelsey Ball