

Dear Committee Members,

Here are my arguments against rent control:

1. Removes incentives to build new housing
2. Prevents younger or new residents from moving into the area
3. Landlords will not have incentive to improve property
4. Lower property valuations which leads to less tax revenue

Sincerely,

John Gifford