Dear Committee,

My name is Andrew Robin and, as a physician and Navy veteran who has seen first-hand the effects of noise on the hearing and mental health of Navy sailors and Marines, I can say with authority that loud noise is, indeed, a form of dangerous pollution. I am a Providence resident who opposes unhealthy noise and other toxic emissions from leafblowers, and I think they should be regulated just like other sources of pollution.

I believe this to be a public health emergency and would appreciate your treating it as such. Please oppose H7150.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Andrew Robin MD
