

I would like to see gas powered leaf blowers regulated out of use. They are horribly noisy. Educate home owners that leaves are a natural fertilizer and place for beneficial insects to live. There is always electric equipment. Give landscapers time and incentives to switch over. Save our peaceful neighborhoods!

Laurie Behr