

February 11, 2026

The Honorable Stephen M. Casey, Chairman
House Municipal Government and Housing Committee
State House
Providence, RI 02903

Re: H.7568, An Act Relating to Taxation – Levy and Assessment of Local Taxes

Dear Chairman Casey,

The undersigned members of the Rhode Island Business Coalition support the passage of H.7568, An Act Relating to Taxation – Levy and Assessment of Local Taxes and thank Representative Noret for introducing this legislation.

Under current law, any city or town may choose to opt in to a program to waive interest on one quarter of overdue residential property tax for owners that meet the following conditions:

- The residence has been owned for the five years immediately preceding the tax payment that is overdue
- The taxpayer requests the waiver in writing
- The taxpayer made timely payments of taxes for the five years immediately preceding the tax payment
- The payment that is overdue was issued less than two years prior to the date of the request for the waiver
- The waiver of interest is $500 or less

This program seeks to assist property owners that have a positive track record, but experienced a temporary economic shortfall, perhaps missed a payment by mistake or encountered an illness that placed the payment of taxes on the back burner for a brief time, resulting in the payment of interest.

H.7568 gives cities and towns the option to extend the same program to commercial properties. Business owners, particularly small “Mom and Pop” establishments, face the same challenges as residential homeowners. A simple mistake, economic downturn or illness can result in owing the municipality interest that would better serve everyone by staying in the business to keep it operating.

The Rhode Island Business Coalition represents 50 industries and 6,280 businesses that employ 231,200 people throughout Rhode Island.

We urge the committee to recommend passage of H.7568. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Associated Builders and Contractors – Rhode Island Chapter

East Greenwich Chamber of Commerce

National Federation of Independent Business

Rhode Island Association of Realtors

Rhode Island Hospitality Association

Rhode Island Small Business Economic Summit Regulations Subcommittee

Rhode Island Small Business Summit Tax and Budget Committee

Rhode Island Staffing Association

cc. House Municipal Government and Housing Committee members