

Hello,

I am writing in support of the bill to change the name of the Victory Day holiday to Peace & Remembrance Day.

I believe using the words "peace" and "remembrance" invite reflection and contemplation and allow for many different experiences relating to World War II. Whereas "victory" feels heavy-handed, narrow, and prescriptive.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Julia Gualtieri
Providence, RI