Dear Members of the House State Government and Elections Committee,

My name is Lindsey Ramirez. I'm a Rhode Island resident and founder of VouchHer, a platform that helps people find and support women-owned businesses across the United States.

Through my work, I engage with entrepreneurs and small business owners building economic opportunity in their communities. Many rely on fair, accessible civic systems to ensure their voices are represented in decisions that directly impact their livelihoods.

Access to secure and equitable voting is foundational to both a functioning democracy and a healthy business environment. When people participate fully, it strengthens communities and supports long-term growth.

I respectfully urge the Committee to support H8334.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Lindsey Ramirez
