ADDRESS

Majority Whip Kazarian addresses House members in recognition of Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day, a solemn occasion of great significance. To honor the memory of the estimated 1.5 million Armenians who perished in the mass killings and deportations of 1915 in Turkey, it is essential, as members of this esteemed House, that we acknowledge and remember this tragic chapter in history. By doing so, we not only pay tribute to the victims but also reaffirm our commitment to justice, human rights, and the prevention of such atrocities in the future.

GUESTS

Majority Whip Kazarian, in honor of Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day, welcomes to the House Chamber Father Kapriel Nazarian, Ani Haroian, Stephen Elmasian, Fotini Dionisopoulos, Joyce Avedisian, Martha Jamogichian, Garo Tashian, George Varky, Manoog Kapreilian, and her mother, Michele Kazarian. Speaker Shekarchi welcomes them and thanks them for coming to this important event.

Opening Prayer

April 23, 2024

In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen. Heavenly Father, as we gather together today at the gracious invitation of the members of the Rhode Island House of Representatives to commemorate the 109th anniversary of the start of the Armenian Genocide, we ask for your blessings on this assembly and all of its members and their staffs. Bless, O Lord, this assembly for being the first government body in the world to recognize the independence of Nagorno-Karabagh / Artsakh in 2012, leading to government bodies throughout the country and the around the world following their righteous lead.

As the Genocide that was begun 109 years ago continues to be perpetuated today, Azerbaijan with the support of Turkey, blockaded, starved, and finally brutally attacked our brothers and sisters last September, forcibly ~~removing~~ ^{deporting} the 120,000 remaining Christians from their ancestral land of Nagorno-Karabagh / Artsakh. And now, cultural Genocide is also taking place, as centuries old churches, monasteries, and monuments are being destroyed in an attempt to erase all evidence of our living on this land for close to three thousand years. The world and all its leaders, occupied by other events and concerns, were deafeningly silent as this Genocide continued and continues today, with their aggression now turning toward our sovereign nation of Armenia. We ask for your mercy, O Lord, and to touch the hearts of this and all government bodies around the world to do their part, no matter how small it might seem, to hold accountable all who perpetuate the hatred that leads to Genocide and the suffering of so many innocent people.

Make each of us beacons of Your light who seek to always to please you. We pray, Lord, guide us all, and especially all the members of this ~~Senate~~ ^{House}, that they might lead us in Your righteousness and truth. Fill our hearts with the desire to defend the sanctity of life in all situations. We ask this in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
