AN ACT RELATING TO TOWNS AND CITIES

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2011 -- H 5922, entitled "AN ACT RELATING TO TOWNS AND CITIES", as follows:

By deleting all of the language after the enactment clause and substituting the following language in place thereof:

"SECTION 1. Section 45-9-13 of the General Laws in Chapter 45-9 entitled "Budget Commissions" is hereby amended to read as follows:

45-9-13. Other state receivership laws inapplicable. -- No city or town shall be placed into, or made subject to, either voluntarily, or involuntarily, a state judicial receivership proceeding, and nothing in this act shall in any way pre-empt or restrict the powers and remedies available to a state-appointed receiver under Chapter 9 of Title 11 of the United States Code and the receiver's ability to exercise such powers and remedies on a city's or town's behalf in a federal proceeding filed under Chapter 9 of Title 11 of the United States Code.

SECTION 2. Chapter 45-9 of the General Laws entitled "Budget Commissions" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections:

45-9-18. Additional powers of receiver. – The receiver shall be entitled to exercise all powers under the general laws, this chapter, the state constitution, any special act, any charter provision or ordinance that any elected official or any body of the city or town may exercise, acting separately or jointly; provided, however, that with respect to any such exercise of powers by the receiver, the elected officials or the body shall not rescind or take any action contrary to such action by the receiver so long as the receivership continues to exist.

45-9-19. Expenditures by elected officials in excess of appropriations prohibited. – (a) No elected official of a city or town which is subject to the jurisdiction of a fiscal overseer, budget commission or receiver, except in the case of an emergency involving the health and safety of the people or the people's property declared by the city or town council, shall knowingly expend or cause to be expended in any fiscal year any sum in excess of that official's departmental or other governmental unit's appropriation duly made in accordance with the law, nor commit the city or town, nor cause it to be committed, to any obligation for the future payment of money in excess of that appropriation, with the exception of court judgments.

(b) An elected official who intentionally violates this section shall be personally liable to the city or town for any amounts expended in excess of an appropriation to the extent that the city or town does not recover such amounts from the person or persons to whom such amounts were paid and shall not be indemnified by the city or town for any such amounts. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate claims brought by the city or town, or on the city's or town's behalf by a budget commission established under this chapter, and to order relief that the court finds appropriate to prevent further violations of this section.

45-9-20. Orders of the receiver. – In the event a receiver is appointed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, powers of the city or town council exercisable by resolution or ordinance shall be exercised by order of the receiver.

45-9-21. Exemption from liability and prosecution. – (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, neither the director of the department of revenue, nor any fiscal overseer, budget commission member, receiver or administration and finance officer or any managerial, professional or clerical staff hired, retained or employed by the director of the department of revenue or any fiscal overseer, budget and review commission, receiver or administration and finance officer under chapter 45-9 of the general laws shall have any civil liability for any actions taken or omitted in the course of performing their official duties.

(b) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, neither the director of the department of revenue nor any fiscal overseer, budget commission member, receiver or administration and finance officer, nor any managerial, professional or clerical staff employed by the director of the department of revenue or any fiscal overseer, budget and review commission, receiver or administration and finance officer under chapter 45-9 of the general laws shall be subject to prosecution or have any liability for misdemeanor violations of criminal laws for actions taken or omitted in the course of performing their official duties under the chapter 45-9 of the general laws.

45-9-22. Indemnification. – Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the state shall indemnify, exonerate, defend and hold harmless the director of the department of revenue and any fiscal overseer, budget commission member, receiver or administration and finance officer and any managerial, professional or clerical staff hired, retained or employed by the director of the department of revenue or any fiscal overseer, budget and review commission, receiver or administration and finance officer under chapter 45-9 of the general laws, from all loss, cost, expense, and damage, including legal fees and court costs, if any, arising out of any contract, claim, action, compromise, settlement, or judgment by reason of any intentional tort or by reason of any alleged error or misstatement or action or omission, or neglect or violation of the rights of any person under any federal or state law, arising out of or relating to actions taken or omitted by such person under this chapter 45-9, except in the case of intentional malfeasance, malicious conduct or gross negligence. The costs of such indemnity and defense shall be paid for solely from amounts available in the city's or town's general fund, from amounts appropriated by the general assembly for such purposes, or from other available funds to the extent permitted by law.

45-9-23. Litigation costs. – Unless such person shall be the prevailing party in a final non-appealable judgment, any person who violates this chapter or ignores a written demand made by a fiscal overseer, budget commission member, receiver or administration and finance officer acting within the scope of his or her duties, shall be required to pay the reasonable attorney fees incurred by the fiscal overseer, budget commission member, receiver or administration and finance officer and/or his or her counsel to seek enforcement of this chapter or compliance with such written demand.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage, and shall apply retroactively to May 15, 2010."

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX
VETO MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

State Of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations

Lincoln D. Chafee
Governor

June 30, 2011

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

In accordance with the provisions of Rhode Island General Laws § 43-1-4, I am transmitting herewith with my disapproval, 2011-H-5385, "An Act Relating to Businesses and Professions – Optometrists."

This bill would prohibit insurers from requiring optometrists to participate in a subsidiary's or third-party vision care plan as a condition for participation in the insurer's participating provider panel.

In light of the rising cost of health care, Rhode Island has an interest in promoting affordable health care options for our residents. I have serious concerns about legislative efforts that could interfere with health insurers' reasonable cost-containment measures. This legislation would restrict the ability of health insurers to save consumers money by pursuing initiatives that reduce administrative costs.

For this reason, I disapprove of this legislation and respectfully urge your support of this veto.

Sincerely,

Lincoln D. Chafee

AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES--RETIREMENT SYSTEM -- CONTRIBUTION AND BENEFITS

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2011 -- H 6319 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES--RETIREMENT SYSTEM -- CONTRIBUTION AND BENEFITS", as follows:

1. On page 112, line 8, by deleting the language “This act shall take effect upon passage.” and by inserting in place thereof the following:

“Payment of legal fees to defend act. (1) Except as provided in subdivision (2) herein, in the event that legal action is commenced to challenge this act or any provision thereof, any legal costs and other associated costs incurred by the state in the defense of this act, including, but not limited to, attorney’s fees and costs of discovery, shall be paid by and from assets of the funds that are held as part of the defined contribution retirement plans established in this act and/or from a plan as defined in chapter 36-10.2 (Pension Protection Act). Said legal costs and other associated costs shall not be paid from the general fund and/or any other assets of the state.

(2) Provided, that if the state incurs any legal costs and other associated costs, including, but not limited to, attorneys’ fees and costs of discovery, in the defense of a specific locally administered plan or other plan that does not meet the definitions of a plan as set forth in subdivision (1) herein, the state may seek reimbursement of costs from the assets of the funds of such specific locally administered plans or other plans. In the event the state incurs such expenses in the defense of several plans, the expenses shall be apportioned in relation to the percentage of work incurred in the defense of the respective plans.

(3) The provisions of this section shall also apply to any legal costs and other associated costs directly incurred in anticipation of legal action, regardless of whether legal action is actually undertaken or initiated. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to pay for attorneys’ fees or any costs whatsoever to any party other than the State of Rhode Island. This section does not authorize the payment of attorneys’ fees or related costs to any party who challenges this act, regardless of whether such challenge is successful or not. The purpose of this section is to designate the funds from which the state's legal costs for any litigated challenge to this act shall be paid from.

SECTION 24. This act shall take effect upon passage."

“The cost-of-living adjustment provided for herein shall be a simple COLA, not compounded, and shall be based on the annual social security adjustment for the year.

Effective July 1, 2011:

Amount of annual benefit before application	Amount of COLA
$1 to $30,000	3%
$30,999 to $60,000	1.5%
$60,000 to $90,000	1%
Over $90,000	No COLA

For purposes of clarity, the cost-of-living adjustment is capped at ninety thousand dollars ($90,000), and no cost-of-living adjust shall be provided to any person whose annual retirement benefit exceeds the sum of ninety thousand dollars ($90,000). The general assembly in conjunction with the general treasurer shall review these percentages at least every five (5) years."

Respectfully submitted,

REPRESENTATIVE MCLAUGHLIN

REPRESENTATIVE ELAINE A. CODERRE

Dear God, when we became members of this House we assumed many duties and responsibilities. We have a duty to represent those who elected us; we also have a responsibility to do that which is best for all the people of Rhode Island; and we have a duty to follow our own conscience. Help us to deal with all of these, especially when they appear to conflict. Amen.
