APPENDIXINVOCATION*REPRESENTATIVE FATHER KAPRIEL NAZARIAN

In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen. Heavenly Father, as we gather together today at the gracious invitation of the members of the Rhode Island House of Representatives to commemorate the 108th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, we ask for your blessings on this assembly and all of its members and their staffs. Beginning in 1915, the Turkish government sought to eliminate the Armenian people along with their Christian faith, brutally killing more than one and one half million innocent men, women and children, sparing not even the elderly or unborn children in their mother's wombs. While they intercede for us in heaven as our martyred saints, their souls cry out to us to stand for the sanctity of all life.

Bless, O Lord, this assembly for being the first government body in the world to recognize the independence of Artsakh in 2012, leading to government bodies throughout the country and the around the world following their righteous lead. As the Genocide that was begun 108 years ago continues to be perpetuated today in our ancestral land of Artsakh, led by Azerbaijan with the support of Turkey, taking the lives of so many and threatening the lives of our 120,000 Christian brothers and sisters remaining there, we ask for your mercy and to touch the hearts of this and all government bodies around the world for their continued support. We thank you, Lord, for the courage of the members of the Rhode Island House of Representatives to always be at the forefront of standing for the truth in recognizing the Armenian Genocide and the independence of Artsakh.

Make each of us beacons of Your light in brotherly and sisterly love as one nation united under You. We pray, Lord, guide and grant your divine wisdom to all the members of this assembly today and in all the days ahead that they might lead us in Your righteousness and truth. We ask this in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
