APPENDIXINVOCATION*REPRESENTATIVE CAMILLE VELLA-WILKINSON

Dear Lord: Eighty years ago today, tens of thousands of young American men from every nationality, religion, and race answered the call of their government. Huddling in ships across the boiling seas waiting to invade fortress Europe. Never knowing if the letters they were writing to mothers, fathers, or loved ones would be their last. They went to free people whose cultures they didn't know, and languages they didn't speak. Still, they answered the call for help. Let us always remember to honor the sacrifice of those who went, and always remember in our prayers, those who never came home. Amen.
