FLOOR AMENDMENT TO 2026 -- H 7127 SUBSTITUTE A AS AMENDED

AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2027

Madam President:

I hereby move to amend 2026 -- H 7127 SUBSTITUTE A AS AMENDED, entitled "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2027", as follows:

1. In Article 3, page 51, by inserting the following language before line 1:

"SECTION 22. This section shall serve as a joint resolution required pursuant to R.I. Const., Art. XIV, Sec. I.

JOINT RESOLUTION TO APPROVE AND PUBLISH AND SUBMIT TO THE ELECTORS A PROPOSITION OF AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

RESOLVED, that a majority of the members elected to each house of the General

Assembly voting therefor, the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Rhode Island be proposed to the qualified electors of the State for their approval in accordance with the provisions of Article XIV of the Constitution, and that it take the place of Article IX, Section 14, which is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE IX – OF THE EXECUTIVE POWER

Section 14. Veto power of governor -- Veto overrides by general assembly – Acts effective without action by governor.

Every bill, resolution, or vote (except such as relate to adjournment, the organization or conduct of either or both houses of the general assembly, and resolutions proposing amendment to the Constitution) which shall have passed both houses of the general assembly shall be presented to the governor. If the governor approve it the governor shall sign it, and thereupon it shall become operative, but if the governor does not approve it the governor shall return it, accompanied by the governor's objections in writing to the house in which it originated, which shall enter the governor's objections in full upon its journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, three-fifths of the members present and voting in (except for any bill addressing appropriation of money, two-thirds of the members elected to) that house shall vote to pass the measure, it shall be sent with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by three-fifths of the members present and voting in (except for any bill addressing appropriation of money, two-thirds of the members elected to) that house, it shall become operative in the same manner as if the governor had approved it, but in such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by ayes and nays and the names of the members voting for and against the measure shall be entered upon the journal of each house, respectively. If the measure shall not be returned by the governor within six days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to the governor the same shall become operative unless the general assembly, by adjournment, prevents its return, in which case it shall become operative unless transmitted by the governor to the secretary of state, with the governor's disapproval in writing within ten days after such adjournment.

If any bill presented to the governor shall address appropriation of money, the governor may:

(a) Approve or disapprove the entire bill in like manner as the passage of other bills set forth in this section; or

(b) Reduce or eliminate any sum or sums of money appropriated in the bill while approving other portions of the bill, in which case the portions of the bill approved by the governor shall become law, and each reduced or eliminated sum of money shall also become law unless the general assembly reconsiders and separately and individually passes the original sum according to the rules and limitations prescribed in this section for the passage of other bills over the governor's veto; and/or

(c) Disapprove one or more items or parts of items of the bill (other than sum or sums of money described in the immediately preceding subsection (b) of this section), in which case the portions of the bill approved by the governor shall become law, and each item or part of an item disapproved by the governor shall not become law unless the general assembly reconsiders and separately and individually passes the original version of the item or part of an item according to the rules and limitations prescribed in this section for the passage of other bills over the governor's veto, provided:

(1) That in approving the bill in part, the governor may not create:

(i) A new word by rejecting individual letters in the words; or

(ii) A new sentence by combining parts of two or more sentences; and

(2) Further, that to the extent an item or part of an item disapproved by the governor constitutes a condition including, but not limited to, directing or restricting the use, of an appropriation, the sum corresponding to the specific item of appropriation to which the disapproved condition applies shall not be reduced but shall remain as part of the appropriated funds.

RESOLVED, that this proposition of amendment shall be submitted to qualified electors for their approval or rejection at the next statewide general election. The voting places in the several cities and towns shall be kept open during the hours required by law for voting therein for general officers of the state; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the secretary of state shall cause this proposition of amendment to be published in the newspapers of the state prior to the date of the meetings of qualified electors; and this proposition of amendment shall be inserted in notices to be issued prior to the meetings of qualified electors for the purpose of warning the town, ward, or district meetings, and this proposition of amendment shall be read by the town, ward, or district meetings to be held as aforesaid; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the town, ward, and district meetings to be held as aforesaid shall be warned, and the list of voters shall be canvassed and made up, and the town, ward, and district meetings shall be conducted in the same manner as now provided by law for the town, ward, and district meetings for the election of general officers of the state; and be it further

RESOLVED, that upon approval by the qualified electors, this proposition of amendment shall take effect and amend Section 14 of Article IX of the Constitution of the state on January 1, 2027."

2. In Article 3, page 51, line 1, by deleting the section number "22" and inserting in place thereof the section number "23".

Respectfully submitted,

Senator de la Cruz

1. In Article 6, page 28, between lines 14 and 15, by inserting the language:

"(4) Pass-through business income exemption.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, for the purposes of calculating the personal income tax surcharge established under this chapter, "taxable income" shall exclude qualified business income earned by, or passed through from, an eligible pass-through entity.

(ii) For the purposes of this subsection, an "eligible pass-through entity" shall mean any business entity doing business in Rhode Island that is treated as a partnership, an S-Corporation, a Sole Proprietorship, or a Limited Liability Company for federal income tax purposes.

(iii) Qualified business income shall include all items of net income, gain, deduction, and loss derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources by an eligible pass-through entity, and reported on the taxpayer's federal schedule C, E, or F, or federal form 1065 or 1120S.

(iv) This exemption shall not apply to guaranteed payments for services rendered, nor shall it apply to passive investment income not derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within this state.

(v) The tax administrator shall promulgate such rules, regulations, and forms necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection, ensuring that individual taxpayers can verify and subtract qualified business income from their total taxable income prior to the calculation of the surcharge."

"(4) Pass-through business income exemption.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, for the purposes of calculating the personal income tax surcharge established under this chapter, "taxable income" shall exclude qualified business income earned by, or passed through from, an eligible pass-through entity.

(ii) For the purposes of this subsection, an "eligible pass-through entity" shall mean any business entity doing business in Rhode Island that is treated as a partnership, an S-Corporation, a Sole Proprietorship, or a Limited Liability Company for federal income tax purposes.

(iii) Qualified business income shall include all items of net income, gain, deduction, and loss derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources by an eligible pass-through entity, and reported on the taxpayer's federal schedule C, E, or F, or federal form 1065 or 1120S.

(iv) This exemption shall not apply to guaranteed payments for services rendered, nor shall it apply to passive investment income not derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within this state.

(v) The tax administrator shall promulgate such rules, regulations, and forms necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection, ensuring that individual taxpayers can verify and subtract qualified business income from their total taxable income prior to the calculation of the surcharge."
