STATEMENT OF
CONGRESSMAN PATRICK J. KENNEDY
REGARDING MAJORITY LEADER CARUOLO'S RESIGNATION

It is with mixed emotions that I pass along my best wishes to my friend and mentor George Caruolo who has chosen to end what can only be defined as a dignified and admirable career in the General Assembly.

I have known George Caruolo all of my political life. To me he has been a teacher, a confidant, but most importantly, a friend. The Rhode Island General Assembly is truly at a loss with his departure.

Just in the last few years, our Majority Leader has, time and again, demonstrated why he has rightfully earned his place as a leader among leaders. From his outspoken hard work against for-profit health care, to leading the national legislative agenda in electric utility deregulation, to restoring the public's confidence in the General Assembly, George has done it all. On these issues, and so many more, I have found it a privilege to work with such a skilled legislator.

George's politics are straightforward. His allegiances are in the populist spirit. And his dedication to his oath of office is unsurpassed. It must be hard to walk away from his commitments in State affairs, but I know he does so for the highest purpose: to spend time with his family and watch his children grow.

George has shown me how it all works and I will be forever grateful. There are very few people who can see the widest picture of the political world but George has seemed to take it all in and pass it along with relative ease.

And so, I now, albeit unwillingly, surrender George's good nature, kind heart, and commitment to the people over to history. We can only hope that this departure from elective office is a short term affair. For my part, I will continue to rely on his deep knowledge of history, his understanding of electoral politics, and most of all his respect for Rhode Island.

In short, I want to publicly recognize how important George Caruolo has been to me. The Majority Leader's counsel, level of dedication, and unswerving skill of leadership that he has demonstrated throughout his tenure in public service, has been invaluable to me and something unique that we can all aspire to.

I want to wish George the best. I know his wife Joyce and his four children Andrew, David, John, and Lizzie will enjoy having the opportunity to spend more time with their husband and father. Yet, if I might leave the Majority Leader one final message, it would be to enjoy your time away, make the most of your opportunities, but don't stray too far because those of us in public service expect you back amidst our ranks very soon.
