Madam President:

I hereby move to amend 2010 -- H 7618, entitled "AN ACT RELATING TO PROBATE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE - PRACTICE IN PROBATE COURTS", as follows:

1. By deleting all of the following language after the enactment clause and by inserting in place thereof the following language:

"SECTION 1. Sections 33-22-4, 33-22-8, 33-22-19 and 33-22-23 of the General Laws in Chapter 33-22 entitled "Practice in Probate Courts" are hereby repealed.

~~33-22-4. Listing of and notice to legatees and devisees in will contests. — Whenever, in any proceeding pending in a probate court for the probate of a will, it appears to the court that the probate of the will or the appointment of an executor or~~

~~administrator with the will annexed is to be contested in the probate court, then and in that event, the court shall forthwith cause to be entered upon its records an order requiring the petitioner to file with the clerk of court the same information relative to legatees and devisees, if any, named in the will or their representatives as is required relative to a surviving spouse and heirs at law; and the petitioner or his or her attorney shall give or cause notice to be given to those legatees and devisees in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in this title for notice to a surviving spouse and heirs at law.~~

~~33-22-8. Notice of authority to sell or mortgage real estate. — Authority to sell or mortgage real estate shall not be given to a guardian until notice by public advertisement or otherwise, as the court may order, has been given to the husband or wife and the next of kin of the ward, and authority to mortgage shall not be given to an executor or administrator until after personal notice shall have been given by citation to all known parties interested.~~

~~33-22-19. Decrees and orders in writing — Recording. — All the decrees and orders of probate courts shall be made in writing, and shall be recorded by the clerk in books kept for that purpose.~~

SECTION 2. Sections 33-22-5, 33-22-6, 33-22-7, 33-22-11, 33-22-14 and 33-22-21 of the General Laws in Chapter 33-22 entitled "Practice in Probate Courts" are hereby amended to read as follows:

~~33-22-5. Waiver of notice. -- If all interested parties, not including, however, the legatees and devisees named in the will unless they shall have become entitled to notice under the provisions of section 33-22-4, shall, in writing, waive the notice required by section 33-22-3 or section 33-22-4, and assent to action upon the petition by the court at any time, the court may proceed to hear the cause without publication or further notice and any decree entered in the proceeding shall be of the same force and effect as if notice had been given in the manner provided by this chapter.~~

~~33-22-6. 33-22-11. Notice by advertisement. -- In all cases in which notice is required and special provision is not made for it, it shall be given by advertisement of a notice once a week for at least two (2) weeks, the first advertisement to be published at least fourteen (14) days before the first of any hearing dates contained in such notice, in a newspaper printed in English and published in the ~~county~~ city or town or in a ~~Providence~~ newspaper having general circulation within the county in which the matter is to be acted upon, as the probate court by general rule or special order may designate for that purpose; provided, however, that when a probate court shall give, or order to be given, notice by advertisement in a newspaper which has furnished the court with a definite schedule of prices for this advertising, the court shall require the cost of the advertising to be paid to the clerk of the court in advance, and the court shall pay over each month to the newspaper the sums so paid in, upon proof that the notice has been advertised as ordered; provided, however, that any advertisement affecting probate matters in the town of New Shoreham shall be given in a newspaper printed in English and published in the counties of Washington and/or Providence.

33-22-14. Findings of court as to notice. -- If it shall appear to the court, before proceeding, that notice has been given to all known parties interested, ~~by the clerk, upon application to him or her made,~~ in accordance with the foregoing provisions, and in a manner satisfactory to the court, it shall be sufficient to warrant proceeding; and its findings as to notice, unless appealed from, shall be conclusive. Notice by telephone, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission may supplement, but shall not discharge any party's obligation under this chapter to give notice by service or mail.
