FLOOR AMENDMENT

TO

2020 – S 2585

AN ACT RELATING TO COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEDURE—PROCEDURE GENERALLY—CAUSES OF ACTION

Mr. President:

I hereby move to amend 2020 -- S 2585, entitled "AN ACT RELATING TO COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEDURE--PROCEDURE GENERALLY -- CAUSES OF ACTION", as follows:

1. By deleting all the language beginning on page 2, line 23, through and including all language on page 4, line 13, and inserting in its place thereof the following:

"42-9.3-5. Civil investigative demand.

(a) When the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a governmental authority, including, but not limited to, a law enforcement agency, or agent of a governmental authority, or person acting on behalf of a governmental authority (hereinafter referred to as an "entity"), has engaged in or is engaging in, any act or practice declared to be unlawful by this chapter he or she may cause to be executed, in writing, and cause to be served upon any entity that is believed to have information, documentary material, or physical evidence relevant to the alleged or suspected violation, an investigative demand stating the general subject matter of the investigation and require the entity to furnish, under oath or otherwise, a report in writing stating the relevant facts and circumstances of which the entity has knowledge, or to appear and testify or to produce relevant, documentary material or physical evidence for examination, at any reasonable time and place that may be stated in the investigative demand. All civil investigative demands may, at the discretion of the attorney general, be filed in the superior court of the county in which the entity served with the demand, shall dwell or have his or her principal place of business.

(b) At any time before the return date specified in an investigative demand, or within twenty (20) days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date or to modify or set aside the demand, stating good cause, may be filed in the superior court of the county where the entity served with the demand shall dwell or have its principal place of business, or in the superior court of Providence county.

(c) To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this chapter, the attorney general, in addition to other powers conferred upon him or her by this section, may issue subpoenas to any entity; and prescribe any forms and promulgate any rules and regulations that may be necessary, which rules and regulations shall have the force of law.

(d) Service of any notice, demand, or subpoena under this chapter shall be made personally within this state, but if personal service cannot be obtained, substituted service may be made in the following manner:

(1) Personal service without this state;

(2) The mailing of any notice, demand, or subpoena under this section by registered or certified mail to the last known place of business, residence, or abode within or without this state of the entity for whom the service is intended;

(3) In the manner provided in the rules of civil procedure as if a complaint or other pleading that institutes a civil proceeding had been filed; or

(4) Service that the superior court may direct in lieu of personal service within this state.

(e) An entity upon whom a demand is served pursuant to the provisions of this section shall comply with the terms of the demand unless otherwise provided by order of the court. Any entity who removes from any place, conceals, withholds, or destroys, mutilates, alters, or by any other means falsifies any documentary material in the possession, custody, or control of any entity subject of any demand, or knowingly conceals any relevant information, shall be fined not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(f) If any entity fails or refuses to produce any statement or report, or comply with any subpoena or investigative demand issued by the attorney general, the attorney general may file in the superior court of the county in which the entity shall dwell or be found; or has its principal place of business; or of Providence county, if the superior court at the previously mentioned county shall not be in session, or if the entity is a nonresident or has no principal place of business in this state; or of the other county as may be agreed upon by the parties to the petition; and serve upon the entity a petition for an order of the court for the enforcement of this section, and the petition may request, and the court shall have jurisdiction to grant, after notice and a hearing, an order granting any relief that may be required, until the entity files the statement or report, or obeys the subpoena or investigative demand.

(g) Any final order so entered shall be subject to appeal to the state supreme court. Any failure to comply with any final order entered under this section by any court shall be punished as a contempt of court."

Respectfully submitted,

SENATOR LYNCH PRATA

FLOOR AMENDMENT

TO

2020 – S 2302 SUBSTITUTE A

Mr. President:

I hereby move to amend 2020 -- S 2302 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT RELATING TO TOWNS AND CITIES -- CANCER BENEFITS FOR FIREFIGHTERS", as follows:

1. By deleting all language after the enactment clause and inserting in place thereof the following language:

"SECTION 1. Title 45 of the General Laws entitled "TOWNS AND CITIES" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

CHAPTER 21.5

ADJUSTMENT OF DISABILITY PENSIONS

45-21.5-1. Adjustment of disability allowance upon return to work.

(a) Definitions.

(1) "Municipal or quasi-municipal entity" means and includes cities, towns, fire districts, water districts, wastewater districts, school districts, lighting districts, housing authorities, public building authorities, redevelopment authorities or any other public or quasi-public authority or agency created pursuant to state law.

(b) Adjustment of disability pensions.

(1) Should the beneficiary of any retirement system supported wholly or in part by a municipal or quasi-municipal entity be engaged in a gainful occupation, said retirement system shall adjust, and at least annually readjust, the amount of their disability allowance to an amount which, when added to the amount of compensation then earned by the beneficiary, shall be in an amount no greater than the rate of earned compensation in force currently for the classification that the disability beneficiary held prior to retirement.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing shall limit a municipal or quasi-municipal entity from applying a greater adjustment than that described in subsection (b)(1) of this section, to a beneficiary's disability pension based upon any other provision of law or contract.

(c) Applicability.

(1) This chapter shall apply to beneficiaries of disability pensions granted either prior to, or subsequent to, its effective date and shall supersede any special or general laws to the contrary.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this chapter shall in no way impair any contract or collective bargaining agreement currently in effect. Any contracts or collective bargaining agreements, entered into or renewed after the effective date of this chapter, shall be subject to its provisions.

45-21.5-2. Severability.

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person is held unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect any other provision or application which can be enforced without the invalid provision or application as those provisions are declared to be severable.

SECTION 2. Section 44-30-95 of the General Laws in Chapter 44-30 entitled "Personal Income Tax" is hereby amended to read as follows:

44-30-95. General powers of tax administrator.

(a) General. The tax administrator shall administer and enforce the Rhode Island personal income tax and is authorized to make any rules and regulations, and to require any facts and information to be reported, that he or she may deem necessary to enforce the tax. The provisions of chapter 1 of this title relating to the tax administrator shall be applicable to the Rhode Island personal income tax.

(b) Examination of books and witnesses. The tax administrator, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for the purpose of making an estimate of Rhode Island income of any person where information has been obtained, shall have the power to examine or to cause to have examined, by any agent or representative designated by the tax administrator for that purpose, any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or any officer or employee of the person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for its information, with power to administer oaths to the person or persons.

(c) Secrecy requirement. It shall be unlawful for any state official or employee to divulge or to make known to any person in any manner whatever not provided by law the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular of them set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy of the return or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law. It shall be unlawful for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law any return or any part thereof or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures appearing in any return. Any offense against the foregoing provision shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. If the offender is an officer or employee of the state of Rhode Island, the offender may be dismissed from office or discharged from employment.

(d) Interstate and federal agreements. The governor or the tax administrator may enter into agreements with tax officials of other states and the federal government to provide for the exchange of information and to apportion or otherwise equitably determine taxes for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of § 44-30-18 and otherwise avoiding multiple taxation.

(e) Income tax claims of other states. The courts of this state shall recognize and enforce liabilities for personal income taxes lawfully imposed by any other state which extends a like comity to this state, and the duly authorized officer of any other state may sue for the collection of a tax in the courts of this state. A certificate by the secretary of state of the other state that an officer suing for the collection of a tax is duly authorized to collect the tax shall be conclusive proof of that authority. For the purposes of this section, the word "taxes" shall include additions to tax, interest, and penalties, and liability for taxes, additions to tax, interest and penalties shall be recognized and enforced by the courts of this state to the same extent that the laws of the other state permit the enforcement in its courts of liability for taxes, additions to tax, interest, and penalties due this state under this part.

(f) Small tax balances. The tax administrator is authorized to abate the unpaid portion of the assessment of any tax, or any liability in respect thereof, if the administrator determines under uniform rules prescribed by him or her that the administration and collection costs involved would not warrant collection of the amount due.

(g) Limited disclosure of information -- Retirement board. The tax administrator shall disclose to the retirement board of the state of Rhode Island and to the retirement system of municipal and quasi-municipal entities, as defined in § 45-21.5-1 information needed by the board and the retirement system to implement the provisions of §§ 16-16-19, 16-16-24, 36-10-17, 36-10-36, 45-21-24, ~~and~~ 45-21-54, and 45-21.5-1. The content and nature of the information to be disclosed shall be determined and approved by the tax administrator and shall be kept confidential by the board and the retirement system.

(h) Limited disclosure of information -- Jury Commissioner. The tax administrator shall disclose to the jury commissioners of the State of Rhode Island information needed by him or her to implement provisions of § 9-9-1(d).

(i) Limited disclosure of information -- Unclaimed Property Administrator. The tax administrator shall disclose to the unclaimed property administrator of the state of Rhode Island, who is the administrator as defined in § 33-21.1-1, information needed by the unclaimed property administrator to implement the provisions of § 33-21.1-24. The content and nature of the information to be disclosed shall be determined and approved by the tax administrator, but shall be the minimum necessary to implement § 33-21.1-24 and shall be kept confidential by the unclaimed property administrator. The unclaimed property administrator and their employees or agents shall be subject to the same state and federal tax confidentiality laws restricting the acquisition, use, storage, dissemination or publication of confidential taxpayer data that apply to Rhode Island division of taxation officers, agents and employees. Such provisions, include, but are not limited to, §§ 44-1-14, 44-11-21, 44-14-23, 44-19-30, 44-30-95, and 44-44-22; 26 U.S.C. § 6103, and 26 U.S.C. § 7213. It is the unclaimed property administrator's responsibility to ensure that their employees and agents are aware of these obligations."
