Dear Senator,

My name is Brian Clarke, and I am a Rhode Island resident writing in support of Senate Bill 3182, the Forestry and Forest Parity Act.

Rhode Island's forests are an important part of our state's environment, economy, and rural character. Supporting responsible forest management helps preserve open space, protect wildlife habitat and water quality, and reduce the risk of overdevelopment.

This legislation recognizes the importance of the forestry industry and helps provide fair treatment similar to other agricultural industries in our state. The tax and registration provisions included in this bill would help support landowners, forestry professionals, and local businesses that contribute to maintaining healthy working forests across Rhode Island.

I believe this bill is a positive step toward preserving our natural resources while supporting the people and industries that responsibly manage them. I respectfully ask for your support of Senate Bill 3182.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Brian Clarke
Rhode Island Resident
