Dear Members of the Senate Judiciary,

I respectfully ask you to pass the S2161 bill out of committee as soon as possible. I have been following this bill and fully support a law that will reduce the further alienation of people who need stability in their lives when we want them to become productive citizens again in society.

In addition to the effects on the humanity of our criminal justice system is the financial cost to all Rhode Islanders. How crazy for us to spend all that money to incarcerate people who have committed nonviolent crimes, whose violations of parole may not even call for incarceration.

Please pass S2161 at your next hearing on the bill.

With gratitude for your service,

Amy Crawford
